picturesque small towns. The largest Flemish "art cities", like Brussels, Mechelen, Antwerp, Ghent and Bruges are showing their Flemish art treasures. You can make relaxing bike tours over old tow paths along small canals and rivers and via lanes with a lot of poplars to ancient villages, where beer is still being brewed like in grandfathers times. And when one tries this local village beer in a authentic pub or in an outside street café under the trees, the people approvingly raise their glass, especially when one arrives by bike. Make a combination of beautiful cycling tours, various highlights and a very nice stay aboard your "floating hotel". You will travel on board of the brand new premium barge MS Magnifique II for 35 guests, a newly built barge in classical style, operated by the owner of the very successful and beloved barge Magnifique. Among the highlights of the new barge are four upper deck suites with a 2 meter wide window.
